National Court Tennis Champion in Honolulu

Jay Gould, Noted Sportsman, Interested in All Branches of Athletics—Played Polo at 11 and Still Keeps Up Interest in Mallet Game—Began to Plan for Court Tennis Championship at 13—Pastime is Golf—Will Meet Covey in March

Jay Gould, national court tennis champion, who arrived in Honolulu on Tuesday on the Wilhelmina, is a lover of all branches of athletics. He began to play polo at 11 years, and started court tennis at 13 years of age. He takes a deep interest in everything pertaining to athletics, and reached the national championship through hard work on the courts.

When seen this morning at the home of Mrs. Laura A. Covey on Richards street, Mr. Gould readily consented to tell of his work in athletics and every question was answered in a way that showed that the champion was thoroughly conversant with every branch of athletics. He asked about the racing stock on the islands, and was very much interested in the polo matches which are held here.

Interested in Polo

During the trip to the mainland of the Hawaii Polo Team, Mr. Gould met Harold Castle and Walter Dillingham, and during his talk on polo showed that he was entirely up on all things pertaining to the game. He spoke of Carry the News, Helen C. and other ponies, and stated that this game was one he was always interested in.

Mr. Gould started polo early in life and played in a number of tournaments, but his attention to court tennis took most of his time, and as a result he has not played polo much of late. When asked whether he would play here during his stay, he said that he did not know.

Plays Golf

Mr. Gould has taken up golf in earnest, and although he makes the statement that his game is not of the best, nevertheless loves the Royal and Ancient game in the summer months. During the winter his time is devoted chiefly in getting into condition for the court tennis championships, and as this game requires the best of condition, speed and endurance, he does not play the year round.

Meets English Professional

Next March Mr. Gould will meet Covey, the English professional, in a match in Philadelphia, and Kinsella, a young professional who has been making vast strides in the indoor game, has also issued a challenge to the champion. Mr. Gould will begin training for these matches about November 1.

Mr. Gould defeated Joshua Crane, in the last match for the championship of America in Philadelphia, and also won the doubles championships playing with W. H. T. Huhn, defeating Joshua Crane and G. R. Feuring.

Mr. Gould is the ideal type of sportsman, being a good fellow in every way. He has a pleasing manner, and by his conversation one can easily learn that he is always active in promoting any branch of clean athletics. Mr. Gould with Mrs. Gould will remain in Honolulu until early in September.

AL CASTLE AND RICHARDS MAKE GOOD SHOWING

Hawaii Tennis Stars Meet Many Easterners With Good Results

A. L. Castle has been making a great showing on the tennis courts of the East and in all of the tournaments he has entered to date he has been called the "dark horse" of Hawaii. In a recent tournament held at the Merion Cricket Club at Haverford in the Pennsylvania championships, Castle went to the third round and was then defeated by Wallace Johnson, the noted Eastern player.

Eastern tennis critics have been paying considerable attention to the play of the Honolulu man and his work, although handicapped on account of grass courts, has been watched with interest by the Easterners. Castle defeated Thornton of Germantown and Plasse of Pennsylvania in straight sets. Another Honolulu player, Atherton Richards, has been making a good showing in the Eastern tournaments.

Castle Writes

Writing to the sporting editor of the Star-Bulletin, Castle says: "Enclosed are a couple of clippings which tell about the play in the East. Wallace Johnson with his chop stroke on a rather wet course was too much for me. It is raining everywhere in the East and another postponed tournament is the result."

"Atherton Richards is playing fine tennis in the East at present. He was put out of the Metropolitan championship by Throckmorton, 6-3, 8-6. Throckmorton will very likely be in the first 10 this year. He is very young and very promising. Richards and I will play in the Long Beach tournament on Saturday.

"The East and West meet August 4 in an international match, five singles and two doubles. The East will be much strengthened by the addition of Willis Davis, who is attending the University of Pennsylvania. He is playing wonderful tennis. Saw Bill Johnston, Peck Griffin, Mel Long, Dr. Hardy, Carl Gardner and other in San Francisco. All boast Hawaii and are very much interested in our tennis events. The editor of American Lawn Tennis is also interested in the racket game in Hawaii. The people here are greatly interested in the fact that Kunging is coming on and wondering how he will take to grass courts. Must say that the grass courts are very beautiful to look at, but to date feel very strange on them."

"Sincerely,
"A. L. CASTLE"

SANTA CLARA TO MEET LULUS AND CHINESE SQUADS

Visitors Will Meet Paresa's Crew on Saturday; Chinese, Hoon Ki up, on Sunday

"Blondy" Williams will attempt to stop the Santa Clara team on a Saturday afternoon at Athletic Park, and the members of the Lulu squad are confident that the side-arm pitcher will romp home with a victory in the coming contest. The Lulus almost won the last time, and with any kind of an even break they figure that Joe Kachoo's aggregation is due for a defeat.

The Paresa crew is the only team in Honolulu which has failed to stop the visitors, and they are out for revenge. Considering the closeness of the last game the fans expect another interesting contest and will journey out to see the Paresa crowd score a victory.

Locals Fast

The Santa Clara players are anxious to break into the win column once more and will make every effort to land the game from the Lulus. They have played good ball, but the local teams have also been showing something, and the visitors will have to keep going all the time to win from the locals.

On Sunday afternoon the Santa Clara will meet the Chinese team again, and in this game the Missions will put all their strength. They were stopped first by the organization headed by Kan Yen, and feel that the next game will be reversed. Playing to form the Chinese should be slight favorites, but the Santa Clara are due to start soon and when they do may spring a surprise on the local contingent.

Hoon Ki, who pitched the last half of the first game against the Santa Clara, may go out on the mound, and should be able to hold the visitors safe, with good support. The last game played was a comedy of errors, and both Luck Yee and Hoon Ki received poor support until Kan Yen changed things around.

This afternoon the Santa Clara are playing the 25th Infantry in the third game at Schofield. Austin or Jasper has been selected to pitch, while Brown will go on the mound for the visitors. The game was slated to start at 2:30.

CRAFTON FAILS TO WIN AGAINST CAVALRY SQUAD

First Squadron of 4th Cavalry Defeats Company K, 25th Infantry, 8 to 7

Crafton lost. Inasmuch as the great left fielder of the 25th Infantry has beaten Santa Clara twice, this message may sound rather strange, if not queer. He lost all right and the First Squadron of the 4th Cavalry did it. The mounted men defeated Co. K, 25th Infantry, on Sunday by a score of 8 to 7, winning out in the last canto.

The 25th Infantry Company got in Dutch from the start. Seven of the batters were sent to the shade by Pitcher Dutch of the Cavalry. In addition to the fast left fielder, the K Company team had Fagin, the second sacker of the regular team. They also had a lively man in center and a Green man at the keystone sack. Fagin and Crafton were the heavy hitters, the latter getting a homer in the eighth. Epperson and Buettel were the heavy hitters for the mounted men.

The players and score was as follows:

First Squadron, 4th Cavalry—Herbert, 2d; Bolk, ss; Ernie, rf; Epperson, lf; Jobe, 1b; Lyons, cf; Buettel, 3d; Dutch, p; Diehl, c.
Co. K, 25th Infantry—Crow, c; Breckenridge, 2d; Fagin, 1b; p; Crafton, 3b; Prince, lf; 2b; Lively, cf; Reynolds, ss; Parks, p, 1b; lf; Crawford, rf; Green, N. 2b, cf; Jones, L, cf, rf.

Two out when winning run was made.

Hits and runs by innings:
1st Inning—0 1 1 1 2 0 0 0 1—8
Base hits—0 2 1 1 1 4 1 1 0 2—13
Co. K—3 1 0 0 0 0 0 3 0 0—7
Base hits—3 2 1 0 2 0 1 3 2 2—16
Summary—Home run, Crafton; three-base hits, Epperson, 2; Jobe, Buettel, Crow; hit by pitcher, Crafton, Green, N.; bases on balls, off Dutch 0, off Parks 2, Fagin 0; struck out, by Dutch 7, by Parks 2, Fagin 5. Umpires, Martie and Sewell. Time of game, 1 hour and 50 minutes.

RUFUS WILLIAMS LOSES BOUT TO FRANKIE JONES

Rufus Williams, former middleweight champion of Hawaii, has been finding the going rather hard in San Francisco. Right off the jump he was matched with Frankie Jones, one of the hardest boys to down now on the coast. During his mix-up Rufus was hammered around the ring by the Pacific Coast boy.

In writing of the first bout the San Francisco Bulletin says:

"Rufus Williams, the colored middleweight, spent the first round of his go with Frankie Jones setting himself for a knockout. The next three rounds he spent as a backstop for Frankie's punches.

"There is only one kind of punch that Jones didn't try on Rufus last night—the La Blanche swing.

"When it was all over Rufus looked like a chocolate sundae with cherry dressing. He was oozing blood at the nose and mouth, and his eyes, had they not been black when the fight started, would certainly have been when it ended. It was a most unpleasant experience for Rufus, and it's a hot dog against fried chicken that when Rufus goes match hunting again he won't mention Frankie Jones. A decision was not necessary. Everybody knew who won."

Rufus Williams made a good reputation in Hawaii and was a victor over nearly every fighter in this section. Joe Potts, who defeated Quinn on July 4, twice fought the colored boxer to a draw. Rufus was a member of the 25th Infantry.

WASEDA LEADER PRAISES LOCAL BALL TOSSERS

Members of Waseda University baseball team arrived Wednesday on the Nippon Maru on their way to Japan after a successful trip to the states, where they met a number of the leading baseball teams among the colleges. In the tour they were the guests of the Chicago University, which brought them to the United States.

"We had a successful trip, considering the strength of our batters, and won a number of games on the tour. We found that the mainland teams did not measure up to the standard of the teams in Hawaii," said Coach Kono. "Honolulu has surely developed some great players and the recent showing made against the Santa Clara team proves that we were not so woefully weak after all."

"We were given every courtesy during our tour and found a number of interesting incidents that were pleasing. We also had an opportunity to witness the games in the major leagues, which was an education to our players. Honolulu should not be afraid to tackle any of the teams which we met during the tour. I was very pleased to hear that Des Jardien was given a chance with the Cleveland team."

HILO WILL SEND TENNIS STAR TO PUNAHOU SCHOOL

Miss Maile Vicens Will Enter School This Fall; Has Great Future, Say Critics

Honolulu will have a new tennis player in September who promises to make good in the ladies' singles at the next tournament. This is Miss Maile Vicens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Vicens of Hilo, who will enter Punahou this fall.

Miss Vicens has made a great showing in the tournaments on Hawaii, and in the inter-school matches, playing with Hilo high school against the Boarding School, played with the boys, and the high school won out. Students of the high school consider her one of the best players ever developed in Hilo.

Miss Vicens is enthusiastic about tennis, and is a real outdoor girl. Leading tennis players on Hawaii predict a great future for the Hilo girl, and expect that within a few years she will win the island championship in the ladies' singles. Miss Vicens comes by her tennis ability naturally, as both Mr. and Mrs. Vicens are tennis enthusiasts. The coming of Miss Vicens to Punahou may mean a new interest in the court game at that school.

ARMY POLOISTS WIN FROM TEAM OF SUBSTITUTES

Players Who Lost to Maui on June 10 Win From Second Team, 14 1-4 to 9 1-4

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondent) SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, July 6.—There was an unusually large crowd at the polo game yesterday afternoon, following which both players and spectators enjoyed a tea dance at the Mounted Service Mess.

The game "Army" team that played against Maui on June 10 at Kapolei park played against another picked team from the 4th Cavalry and 1st and 9th regiments of field artillery. The second team was given a handicap of 10 goals, and was defeated in a seven period game 14 1-4 to 9 1-4.

During the first two periods the second team gave the army representatives a run for their money, but the first team was much better mounted and finally ran away from the slower ponies and scored 15 goals to their opponents' one.

The first team players were Haverkamp, No. 1; Herr, No. 2; Beard, No. 3, and Hoyle, No. 4. Those playing on the second team were Cullum, Cheney, J. O. Daly, Erlenkotter, Estes and Rogers.

The scores:
Goals—Haverkamp 5, Herr 6, Beard 3, Hoyle, Erlenkotter.
Ponies—Hoyle, Daly, Estes.
Safeties—Haverkamp, Cullum, Cheney, Daly.
Referee—Capt. Hamilton Hawkins, 4th Cavalry.
The game was played on a grass field in favor of a less susceptible man.

Wanted.—To find the person who did not get his money's worth at that ball game on Tuesday. On the coast they pull off a ball game like that every once in a while. Down here it is a regular occurrence.

Rogan made a beautiful stop of Jack O'Neill's sizzling grounder in the second inning. He pegged high to Herring, who pulled the pill down out of the clouds and touched the runner in the nick of time. At that, Jack accumulated three hits.

BASKET-BALL WILL BE INTRODUCED AT SCHOOL BY WASEDA BALL TEAM

Basket-ball is certain to be one of the big games in Japan in the future, according to H. Kato, one of the Waseda players, who is returning to Japan. During his stay here yesterday the little shortstop stated that the game is one worth introducing into the sports curriculum of Nippon.

The speed, agility and interest in the games which the Japanese have watched during their tour is certain to be attractive to the students in Japan, according to Kato. Other members of the team were impressed with the court game and intend to organize a team upon their return to the university.

Santa Clara will go after the 25th's scalp again today at Schofield Barracks. They say they are going to beat the infantrymen if it takes them all summer.
